

Information Sheet:

Community Consultation

Description:

If you've looked at our training and education modules, or participated in them, and would like some help with the next stage of your project Lined Up Ducks can also assist you with the next steps in your program through our Consulting Services.

The Community Consultation phase is an important part of your project and you want to be sure that:

- You get feedback from the right people,
- You get the right type of data to advance your project,
- Your project participants and community understand what you're trying to achieve.

Outcomes:

Our Community Consultation assistance program assists you with:

- Identification of your stakeholders,
- Development of an engagement strategy,
- Gathering of feedback from your community,
- Reports on the feedback you need to take your project to the next phase.

We can even conduct the consultation for you.

Suitable for:

This program is suitable for a wide variety of "communities" and could include businesses with a team, government organisations seeking feedback from a population group, or a not-for-profit or social organisation seeking to gain valuable feedback to advance a project, use in lobbying or for a grant application.

Delivery:

Delivery is usually via the following four steps:

1. Stakeholder mapping, including identification of who they are and their interest in your project.
2. Design of a stakeholder engagement strategy to gather the information you need.
3. Conducting the consultation, including organising venues, issuing invitations to stakeholders and facilitating discussion during the consultation.
4. Reporting back to the client including the outcomes and opportunities for follow-up with stakeholders in the future.
